—Rozalija Johannsen*

*"I feel that when you have the gift to work with a person's natal chart, and you're seeing all their different challenges and blessings that they come into this world with. And you can see that, and you can help them let their light shine, and you can help them utilize those skills that maybe they didn't even know were there, that have been dormant. But it's that potential that you can actually help them actualize in their lifetime. I would love to just be able to do that forever. I just think that would be a gift to just share. And that lights me up."
—Melissa McKinzie*

*"A love an appreciation for all work and dedication it takes to become an astrologer. Heather, you are an amazing teacher. I put you up there with Anne Ortelee. Robert Hand. You're truly gifted."
